EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position:	Fire Inspector	Date Issued:	11/01/18
Job Number:	13137	Date Closed:	11/16/18
Department:	Hernando County Fire Rescue	Salary Minimum:	$18.49
Division:	Public Safety	Salary Mid-point:	$24.21

Description:

The Fire Safety Inspector is responsible for the enforcement of fire and life safety codes and providing fire education classes to the public. The incumbent must have a comprehensive working knowledge of the Florida Fire Prevention Code that includes NFPA 1 Fire Code and NFPA 101 Life Safety Code and the 144 referenced adopted codes and standards supporting those codes, Florida Statutes including 633 and the Florida Administrative Codes that relate to fire prevention and their application in the new and existing commercial buildings located within the County. Much of the work in this classification is performed independently and major reliance is placed on an employee's exercise of judgment, discretion and initiative in determining courses of action to pursue during inspections and detecting inconspicuous fire and safety hazards.

Requirements:

Required: High school graduate or equivalent, with a minimum of 320 contact hours of College level fire prevention training. Preferred: Associate's Degree in a related field (Fire Prevention or Fire Science). Ongoing continuing education required to stay current with changes in standards and codes. Preferred: A minimum of two (2) years of performing fire or code related inspections. Required: Current State of Florida Fire Safety Inspector I certification. Possess a valid State of Florida Driver's License with a good driving record meeting the minimum requirements of the County's vehicle insurance carrier. Preferred: Current State of Florida Fire Safety Inspector II certification and/or Firefighter II certification.
